

Cameron B. Pick

Associate

Tel 312.474.9565
cpick@marshallip.com

Cameron B. Pick assists in prosecuting patents, specifically those related to electrical and software engineering. His educational experience in electrical engineering gives him a strong understanding of clients' technologies, and he leverages this background to assist in many aspects of intellectual property counsel for clients across a wide variety of industries.

Practices

- Patent Prosecution

Industries

- Electrical & Computer Technologies

Representative Experience

Prepared and prosecuted patent applications across a wide range of technologies, including:

- Image processing
- Mobile applications
- Social networking applications
- Mobile payment systems
- Unmanned aerial vehicles
- Medical diagnostics
- Semiconductors
- Wireless communications systems
- Geographic information systems

Background and Credentials

Mr. Pick received his J.D. from Duke University School of Law, where he was a member of the Patent Law Society. He received a Bachelor of Science in electrical engineering, with honors, from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Pick worked as a patent extern at the United States Patent and Trademark Office. He is admitted to practice before the USPTO.

Education

- Duke University (J.D.)
- University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign (B.S., with honors)
 - Electrical Engineering

Bar Admissions

- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office
- Illinois

Publications and Presentations

- "The Decision That Could Change the US Semiconductor Industry," Co-Author, Corporate Counsel, December 24, 2015.
- "Intellectual Property Law and Jewish Law: A comparative Perspective on Absolutism," Yale Journal of Law & The Humanities, 2009, (contributing researcher).