

Creativity Doesn't End with the Invention®

Marshall, Gerstein & Borun LLP

Some of the world's most respected companies turn to Marshall, Gerstein & Borun (MGB) to secure, protect and promote their intellectual property assets. With our exclusive focus on intellectual property law, we offer comprehensive solutions. MGB is a trusted advisor and a formidable legal partner that proves time and again that "creativity doesn't end with the invention®."

The Firm is at the forefront of legal issues involving new and emerging technologies, e.g., cleantech and renewable technologies, biotechnology, nanotechnology, and pharmaceuticals. The Firm also manages the intellectual property portfolios of many clients and has active matters in more than 100 countries.

Many MGB attorneys have prior experience in the public and private sectors. One-third of them hold advanced degrees in science or engineering. MGB's attorneys have backgrounds in electrical, mechanical, chemical and nuclear engineering; medicine, biochemistry, microbiology, genetics, and chemistry; and computer science and software.

Chambers & Partners rated the Firm as "first-rate for litigation and transactional work," adding the Firm has "one of the best biotechnology practices in the entire country." And when corporate counsel of the top 500 companies were polled to identify the law firms they turn to for assistance, MGB emerged as a "Go-To Law Firm of the Top 500 Companies" for intellectual property, (Corporate Counsel 2007, 2008), and as the "Go-To Law Firm for Leading Technology Companies," (Corporate Counsel 2008). MGB was ranked in the top 5% among 352 law firms as a "Top Patent Firm" by Intellectual Property Today (2008).
