

Sydney M. Sodergren

Prosecution Paralegal

Tel 312.474.9502

ssodergren@marshallip.com

Sydney M. Sodergren has been associated with Marshall, Gerstein & Borun LLP as an intellectual property paralegal working with the biotechnology and chemical practice groups since 2013. Ms. Sodergren specializes in domestic and international patent prosecution throughout the biotechnology disciplines. Ms. Sodergren's experience includes filing U.S., PCT, and foreign applications; reviewing biotechnology literature and organizing art for disclosure; analyzing and organizing amino acid and polynucleotide sequence information; managing the legalization of formal documents; and meeting the filing requirements set by foreign jurisdictions worldwide.

Practices

- Patent Prosecution

Industries

- Biotechnology & Life Sciences
- Chemical Sciences

Background and Credentials

Ms. Sodergren earned a B.A. in biology, pre-medicine, and Spanish in 2013 from Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois.

Education

- Augustana College (B.A.)