

Paul E. Bulow

Trademark Paralegal

Tel 312.474.9584
pbulow@marshallip.com

Paul E. Bulow provides clients with a wide range of trademark services, focusing on the prosecution and maintenance of U.S. and international trademark portfolios. Paul has experience working with clients of all sizes and has a versatile approach tailored to meet each client's needs, from preparing documents for legalization and filing to tracking the status and deadlines of global filing projects. He also specializes in reviewing and analyzing search reports, conducting online research for clearance and enforcement purposes, and investigating third party infringement.

Practices

- Trademarks

Background and Credentials

Paul earned a M.A. in Spanish linguistic theory from Northern Illinois University and earned a B.A. in Spanish language from Augustana College. Prior to joining the firm, he provided legal support for the prosecution of domestic and foreign trademark applications.

Education

- Northern Illinois University (M.A.)
 - Spanish Linguistic Theory
- Augustana College (B.A.)
 - Spanish Language