

Daniel B. Henry

Associate

Tel 312.474.3436
dhenry@marshallip.com

Daniel is an Associate within Marshall Gerstein's Electrical & Computer Technologies Group. He assists in drafting and prosecuting patent applications and conducting examiner interviews.

Daniel serves as a member of the firm's peer-elected Associates Committee.

Practices

- Patent Prosecution

Industries

- Electrical & Computer Technologies
- Artificial Intelligence

Representative Experience

Daniel's practice involves matters in various areas, including:

- Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning
- Machine Vision
- Semiconductor Devices
- Radiofrequency Devices
- NFTs and Blockchain
- Materials Modeling and Optimization
- Augmented and Virtual Reality
- Data Encryption
- Process Control Systems
- Wireless Communications
- Drug Development Software Tools

- Visual Inspection Systems
- Cloud Computing
- Medical Devices
- Digital Advertising
- Mapping/Navigation Tools
- E-commerce
- Insurance Industry Innovations
- Financial Industry Innovations

Background and Credentials

Daniel earned his J.D. from Loyola University Chicago School of Law. While in school, he was a member of the Intellectual Property Law Society, a member of the Black Law Students Association, and a member of the First Generation Law Students Association.

Daniel previously served as a Summer Associate at Marshall Gerstein through the 1L Leadership Council for Legal Diversity (LCLD) Scholars Program. Prior to his time as a Summer Associate he was an Extern to the Honorable Christopher P. Yates in Grand Rapids, Michigan for the Kent County Circuit Court.

Education

- Loyola University Chicago School of Law (J.D.)
- Kalamazoo College (B.A.)
 - Computer Science

Publications and Presentations

- "Playing Tennis Makes Me a Better Lawyer," Law360, January 29, 2026.