

Charles Morris

Technical Specialist

Tel 312.423.3452
cmorris@marshallip.com

Charles is a Technical Specialist within Marshall Gerstein's Electrical & Computer Technologies Group where he assists in drafting and prosecuting patent applications. He leverages his background in computer science, Japanese language, and writing to guide patent protection in the U.S. and globally.

Practices

- Patent Prosecution

Industries

- Electrical & Computer Technologies

Background and Credentials

Charles is currently attending law school at Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois Institute of Technology and is expected to graduate in 2024. Upon graduating, Charles will join Marshall Gerstein as an Associate. Prior to law school, Charles received his B.S., magna cum laude, in computer science from Valparaiso University. As an undergraduate, he received the CIS commit Award for his academic ability and his ongoing commitment to professional and technical excellence in computer science. He was also recognized as an Outstanding First Year Student in Japanese.

Representative Experience

- Autonomous driving
- Compute systems
- Electrification
- Network inference
- Network classification

Education

- Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois Institute of Technology (J.D.)

- Expected graduation May 2024
- Valparaiso University (B.S., magna cum laude)
 - Computer Science