

Henry Xu

Patent Agent

Tel 312.423.3447
hxu@marshallip.com

Henry is a Patent Agent within Marshall Gerstein's Industrial & Mechanical Technologies Practice Group. Henry primarily assists with various patent preparation and prosecution projects, including performing patentability and clearance searches, drafting utility and design patent applications, and preparing office action responses.

Practices

- Patent Prosecution

Industries

- Industrial & Mechanical Technologies

Education

- Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois Institute of Technology (J.D.)
 - Expected Graduation May 2029
- University of Michigan (M.S.)
 - Biomedical Engineering
- University of Michigan (B.S., summa cum laude)
 - Biomedical Engineering

Representative Experience

- Conducting searches including patentability, freedom-to-operate, and validity reviews.
- Drafting search reports, claim charts, legal opinions, and client presentations.
- Participating in Examiner interviews and drafting Office Action responses.
- Assisting attorneys with patent-related projects and investigations across various technical fields, including medical devices, automotive components, and other innovations.

Background and Credentials

Henry is currently a student at Illinois Institute of Technology's Chicago-Kent College of Law, with an expected graduation in May 2029. He plans to transition to a Summer Associate with Marshall Gerstein in June 2026.

Prior to attending law school, Henry achieved his M.S. and B.S. in Biomedical Engineering from the University of Michigan.

Bar Admissions

- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office