

Royi Brezner

Technical Specialist

Tel 312.423.3430
rbrezner@marshallip.com

Royi is a Technical Specialist within Marshall Gerstein's Electrical & Computer Technologies Practice Group. He assists in drafting and prosecuting patent applications within emerging technologies such as artificial intelligence, machine learning, and computer vision.

Practices

- Patent Prosecution

Industries

- Electrical & Computer Technologies
- Artificial Intelligence

Representative Experience

- Artificial Intelligence
- Bioinformatics
- Computer Vision
- Deep Learning
- Machine Learning
- Natural Language Processing

Background and Credentials

Royi is currently in law school at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law with an expected graduation date of May 2025. As a law school student he is involved in the Intellectual Property Law Society, the Business Law Society, and the Startup Society. Royi also holds a M.S. of Management in artificial intelligence from Queen's University, Smith School of Business and he holds a B.S. in medical sciences and computer sciences from Western University.

Education

- Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law (J.D.)
 - Expected graduation May 2025
- Queen's University, Smith School of Business (M.S., summa cum laude)
 - Artificial Intelligence
- Western University (B.S.)
 - Medical Sciences and Computer Sciences